

WESTERLY

Twelve took the tubercular test at the Western Nursing Association on Saturday. Dr. H. J. Barnes of the state sanatorium at Wellum Lake examined them. Many of the local physicians were present and four patients were brought for examination, but only twelve were examined, because of lack of time. On June 20, Friday, Dr. Barnes will again give a visit here. It may be noted that the death rate in Rhode Island from this disease is the highest in New England. It is thought this may be due to the textile industry as many of the employees develop the disease.

The death of Mrs. Lavinia Richardson Brown occurred Tuesday evening at 10:45 at her home, 41 Grove avenue. She was the wife of John H. Barnes. The deceased was the daughter of John and Emily Marble Richardson and was born in Windsor, Conn., June 13, 1845. She was united in marriage to John H. Brown at Canton Center, Conn., October 8, 1865. They have made their home in Westerly for the past 54 years. Besides her husband, the deceased is survived by a daughter and two sons, Cyrus W. Brown of New London, Mrs. William Hope of Westerly, and John Brown of New Haven, and several grandchildren. There are also two sisters, Mrs. Emily Lamphar, of Canton, Conn., and Mrs. Alice Perry of Hartford. Mrs. Brown was a member of Calvary Baptist church in Elm street and of the First Congregational church, D. A. R.

The death of Mrs. Stafford Young occurred at her late home in Moosup, on Tuesday, after a brief illness. Mrs. Young is the sister of Mrs. Nathan James of Summit street, Stonington. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. James, and Nathan James, leave town today (Friday) for Moosup and Jewett City, where they will attend the funeral of Mrs. Young, which is to be held at the Jewett City church.

A large number of Westerly people will motor to the boat races today (Friday).

The new manager for the 1922 High School baseball team is Howard Broadfoot, with James Blake as assistant manager. Clifford Smith will manage next year's track team and Roy Gault will be the manager of the basketball team. "22" has been chosen captain of the track team for 1922.

The state board of public roads announced that the usual summer service will be extended to Westerly on Wednesday, June 28. A representative of the board will be in the district court room at the town hall building on Broad street each Wednesday until further notice for the purpose of issuing automobile licenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnister and daughter, Evelyn, of 47 Prospect street, left town for a visit with friends in August, Maine.

Mrs. George Vredenburg, of School street, has returned from a trip to Hartford.

Miss Caroline Peacock of Raleigh, N. C. is the guest of her aunt, Miss Carrie Arnold of Spring street.

Miss Ruby Park of North Stonington will leave on June 28 for New Russia, N. Y., where she will remain during the summer months, returning to North Stonington in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Barnes of New York who occupy the residence at 100 West street, are spending June, July and early August abroad, and upon their return will visit at the Ocean House the middle of August.

Mrs. R. S. Baldwin of Buffalo, N. Y.

STONINGTON

The Stonington High school graduation class held their exercises in the high school building on Thursday evening. The program consisted of music, essays and readings. The whole program was most excellently given. Much credit is due the instructors who have worked so diligently with the class. There were 24 graduates in the class this year.

The Junior term, which proved one of the biggest social events of the season, was held at the Casino Wednesday evening. Boxes of chocolates were distributed to the ladies.

Friends here of Mrs. James R. Palmer of Lisbon were saddened to hear of her sudden death.

Edwin Smith is again on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Tanner, motored to Pachaug Tuesday to see their grandchild, who is seriously ill with spinal trouble.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength.

This preparation for the treatment of freckles is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil, get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that acts on the money-back guarantee.

who have occupied India Point at Avondale for several seasons will spend the summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Andrews of New York, who usually spend the summer at the Hill, will remain in Pasadena, Cal. this season.

State Master C. Palmer Chapman gave an address during the evening. A class of ten candidates were initiated by the grange, No. 12. The refreshment committee served sandwiches, wafers and lemonade.

Fireworks are quite in evidence in Westerly. One would think to hear the noise that Fourth of July was at hand instead of ten days away.

Thursday afternoon a bad accident occurred at about 3 o'clock when Angelo Yalovitch, playing with four other boys about 12 years of age ran in to the street on the White Rock road and ran directly in front of the large truck owned by the New London Paper and Towel Co. of New London. The driver, Charles Burdick, did everything in his power to avert the accident but the wheels of the truck passed over the boy, injuring him internally.

The boy lives at 77 Pierce street. Medical aid was summoned and Dr. Scallion had the boy removed to his home.
